Happy November!

Our first school run Craft Fair is November 3rd, Election Day is November 6th, Veterans Day is November 11th, Thanksgiving is November 22nd and we will also have Parent Teacher Conferences from October 29th to November 5th. November will be busy! Parents, thank you for actively participating in your child's education. It has been wonderful to see all of the confirmed sign ups for our upcoming parent conferences. It is important that your child sees you proactive and involved in their education. Our teachers truly appreciate your support and look forward to working closely with you throughout the year, thanks again!

We are beginning the 2nd 9 weeks of school and our staff is working diligently with our students to support academic success. Our teachers routinely look at data from the class room to guide their instruction and provide additional support to close academic gaps.

As always thank you for supporting Ali'iolani Elementary. Our staff is committed to all of our students' success and we appreciate your continued assistance. I wish all of our students and families a joyous Thanksgiving this year.

Have a great month!

Joseph Passantino
Principal

A Message from our Principal

PUMPKIN PATCH FUN!

Our Preschool and Kindergarteners participated in learning activities, learned about diversified agriculture, experienced the harvesting of field crops, and the history of Aloun Farms. This year's theme focused on the importance of the Honey Bee.

Students got to pick and learn about pumpkins, Hawaii and its agriculture. They also enjoyed a tractor pulled hayride.

CHECKERS TOURNAMENT

Congratulations to our Grade 3 and Grade 4 Checkers Tournament finalists. Great job to everyone who competed!

LOWE'S HEROES

We were so honored and privileged that the Lowe's Heroes chose to work with our school. Thanks to Mrs. Tomita and Mrs. Kamau for putting in the work to get the grant. On Saturday, October 13th, over 25 volunteers from Lowe's transformed our grassy area into a school garden.

FAMILY READING NIGHT

Our 19th Annual Family Reading Night on October 26 was a huge success! With over 100 families, break out sessions, costumes, and ice cream! The event was sponsored by Friends of Ali'iolani (PTA) and Ali'iolani School Library. Thank you to our special guests Master Storyteller Jeff Gere, MasterChef Junior contestant Sophia Stark, Ohana 100, and Ali'iolani's STEM Club. A big mahalo to Meadow Gold Dairy for their generous donation. Thank you to everyone, including our amazing staff and school community for making this event a memorable one!
